

You Are Here™

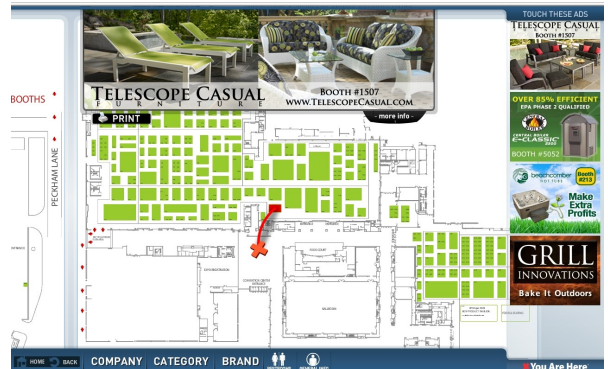

New: The You Are Here Exhibitor Map and Directory System Guides You Directly to the Companies and Products You Want to See!

If you know the company you want to find:

- Click on that company's ad

Otherwise:

- Click on the "Company" button
- Select Company by name
- Select "More Info" button to view contact information or request an appointment by email.

If you're looking for products, services or specific brands:

- Click on the "Category" or "Brand" button
- For Category – search list to locate the type of product you need
- For Brand – type the brand name to locate companies who carry it
- Click on any exhibitor ad to view that company's information

No matter which search method is used, You Are Here shows you exactly where you are, how to get there, and can print a map for you.

At the show this year the system will be deployed on 8 stations displaying the floor map on huge, 42" touch screens placed by entrances and in other crowded areas.

Note: While viewing via the website, for a better display in Internet Explorer or Firefox, hit "F-11" on your keyboard to view the directory in full screen.

You Are Here requires Adobe Flash™ on your system. To download the latest version of Flash for free, click here. It takes under a minute.
